DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

On 26 June 2009, applicant amended Claims 36-53, 65-66, 70-87, 99-100, 104, and 106.

Rejections under 35 USC 112 first and second paragraphs are withdrawn in view of amendment.

Claims 36-107 are pending and are allowed.

Examiner's Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Applicant's amendment and comments are commensurate with the disclosures. The Examiner notes that electronically transferring via the Internet inherently requires client and server computers with processors.

The closest US prior art, Hasegawa (US 7,203,726), neither anticipates nor renders obvious, in the disclosed environment, the steps of representative claim 36, inter alia, modifying said shell electronic greeting card to generate a modified electronic greeting card which include an advertisement integrated into said shell electronic greeting card, said advertisement including information regarding at least one consumer product, said advertisement being integrated into the shell electronic greeting card such that when seen the advertisement may be perceived by said at least one recipient as part of said modified electronic greeting card without interfering with said primary message of said modified electronic greeting card;

Further, Hasegawa neither anticipates nor renders obvious, in the disclosed environment, the steps of

...electronically transmitting via the Internet the modified electronic greeting card to said at least one recipient. (claims 36 and 53)

...electronically transmitting an invitation, via the Internet, to view the modified electronic greeting card to said at least one recipient. (claims 70 and 87).

The closest non-patent literature is Solomon, Go sell it on the mountain, December 1999. Solomon neither anticipates nor renders obvious, the steps noted above.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
